

Envisioning a Dream University

From the Lens of Internationalisation at Home (IaH)

NIDHI PIPLANI KAPUR
Irish Research Council PhD Scholar
Internationalisation at Home
South East Technological University, Ireland
✉ nidhipiplani.kapur@postgrad.wit.ie

CONNECT ON

CONNECT ON

What is Internationalisation at Home (IaH)?

IaH is 'the purposeful integration of international and intercultural dimensions into the formal and informal curriculum for all students within domestic learning environments' (Beelen & Jones, 2015).

It seeks to provide international and intercultural learning to most students at their home institution who cannot take advantage of the mobility opportunities due to socio-economic, physical, or personal circumstances or a lack of interest or awareness about IaH.

SOUTH EAST TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERISTY

CONTRIBUTION TO UN'S SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

4 QUALITY EDUCATION

5 GENDER EQUALITY

10 REDUCED INEQUALITIES

13 CLIMATE ACTION

16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

INCLUSIVE CAMPUS

Non-othering ethics and values

Sense of belonging and community

Student voice in curriculum development and review

Student-centred environment

IaH in institutional strategy

Inter-cultural encounters experienced through multicultural classrooms

FORMAL CURRICULUM

Transformative educational experience through Curriculum Internationalisation

Knowledge that counts - resources that encompass voices from different regions of the world- Decolonising the curriculum

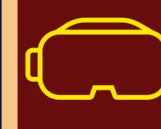

Innovative Pedagogical Approaches such as Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL); Virtual Exchanges, Virtual International Internships, Live Projects, International Conferences, etc

Intentional integration of global perspectives through learning outcomes and assessments

International lecturers, guest lecturers, MOOCs, live streaming etc

Use of Artificial Intelligence and Virtual Reality in internationalisation

Global citizenship education

Language Programmes

INFORMAL CURRICULUM

Experiential learning at the home institution

Events and festivals that promote cross-cultural engagement

Inter-Cultural and Gender sensitisation training for students and staff

Comprehensive support services for domestic and international students

Buddy mentorship opportunities with a cultural other

Community engagement

IMPACT

Appreciation for cultural others

A strong international network

Development of cross-cultural competencies

Enhanced employability prospects

Preparing Global Citizens that will thrive in today's world in which they live and work

'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' - The World is One Family

DR DON O'NEILL
Principal Investigator
Senior Lecturer, Dept. of Arts, School of Humanities
South East Technological University, Ireland

DR HELEN MURPHY
Co-Supervisor
Head, School of Education and Lifelong Learning
South East Technological University, Ireland

DR SUZANNE DENIEFFE
Co-Supervisor
Head, School of Humanities
South East Technological University, Ireland

PROJECT
SUPPORTED
BY

